

The College's Professional Development Library offers health leaders comprehensive e-learning resources designed to refine their leadership skills.

- Members and non-members are invited to register.
- Access is available worldwide, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.
- View live and archived webinars from the national office, and its chapters and partners throughout Canada.
- E-learning resources are accessible through an events calendar, by topic including the LEADS domains, and a search tool.

- The College's roster of recommended leadership speakers is included for event planning assistance.
- Access to health system expertise is available through the College's expanding partnerships.
- Certified members have the ability to fulfill their maintenance of certification requirements remotely.
- Integration with Outlook Calendar allows users to add webinars and live events to their schedule.
- A custom learner home page provides registered users with their purchase history.

>> Browse our library of e-learning resources:
<http://library.cchl-ccls.ca>

The College, its chapters and partners inspire health leaders to grow professionally and personally through expanding their knowledge and skills.

E-learning resources are delivered in their original language in the form of live and archived webinars, documents and presentations.

Who should register?

Leaders from across the health system including:

- Chief Executive Officers and Chief Operating Officers
- Presidents and Vice Presidents
- Executive Directors
- Government and Academic Officials
- Department Heads
- Executive Assistants
- Clinical Managers and Team Leaders
- Administrators
- Students
- Leadership Development Professionals
- HR Professionals
- Consultants